Name:______ Date:___

Unit 5 - Big Up Yourself

5A Introduction

Everybody needs a confidence boost sometimes. This song is ours.

5B Song Lyrics

We're extra large, like XXL,
Excellent, outdo others, we excel.
They spit a rhyme and their skill's depleted,
Used up, they need a tune-up, look who's up.
I'm honored and esteemed by the mamas and the deans,
The Dalai Lama and Sting and everyone in between.
I mean, they're so useless, they're futile,
On the mic, call Lauryn Hill for a new style.

At six foot two, I'm prominent, I mean I stand out, I'm confident.

Overshadow or eclipse the uncertain

Because they don't believe in themselves they're not confident. The mood could be eerie or scary,

But I won't let it near me, clearly.

You hear me? Your body movements are controlled

And influence by instruments.

Everybody big up yourself... x4

Some of those people say that we're unsafe And hazardous, but don't get mad at us. They say that change is bad, but not for us, We never stay the same, we're not monotonous. I'm hot like the sun, I'm oh so solar, I go to Minnesota to get a cold soda. Oooooh, my lines are dense and so compact, You need a brainiac to unpack my raps.

The effect or result of my mic control Is to give you heat to beat the cold.

My mission or quest is to be the best,
So you can bet this MC's passed the test.

The fact is, I'm unique, one of a kind,
I'm out of sight much like the blind.

Flocab and Reason, not hard to find
Because we're in your memory, stuck in your mind.

Hook

5C Words Defined

dense / deplete / eclipse / eerie / effect / esteem / excel / futile / hazardous / influence / monotonous / prominent / quest / solar / unique

Below you'll find each vocabulary word that was used in the song. Each word is followed by the part of speech, a simple definition and a meaningful sentence. Some words will also have synonyms, antonyms and other forms of the word listed.

1. dense (adj) tightly packed in

The crowd was so dense, it was impossible to move down the street.

Synonyms: compact Antonyms: thin, sparse

2.deplete (verb) to use up

Brenda owns so many cats that she is going to deplete the pet store's supply of cat food.

3. eclipse (verb) to overshadow or surpass

Her acting ability will eclipse those of her peers in no time because she rehearses all day. Other forms: Eclipse is also a noun used to describe a large blockage of light. When the sun's light is blocked out by the moon, that's a solar eclipse.

4. eerie (adj) weird, scary or creepy

The abandoned orphanage was especially eerie at night.

5. effect (noun) a result or consequence

The effect of not taking the garbage out was the loss of my weekly allowance.

6. esteem (verb) to honor or think of highly

Mr. Stewart esteemed his students for their honesty when they told him he had given out a test with the answers printed on the back.

Synonyms: to admire

Other Forms: Esteem can also be a noun meaning "admiration, honor or reverence," as in: Bart, a kindergartner, holds his teacher in high esteem.

7. excel (verb) to outdo or surpass; to be extremely talented at

My sister will try to excel at her new job in hopes of getting a raise in salary or a promotion.

8. futile (adj) useless

It was futile for my mom to try to talk her way out of her speeding ticket with the policeman.

Synonyms: pointless, hopeless Antonyms: useful, fruitful

9. hazardous (adj) dangerous or risky

Many firefighters enter hazardous situations in order to save victims from burning buildings. Antonyms: safe, secure

10. influence (verb) to sway or affect

Whenever Grady baby-sits his little sister, he always tries to influence her to go to bed early by giving her candy.

Other forms: The influence (noun) of drugs and alcohol in Stella's neighborhood was too much, and she gave in to the pressure.

11. monotonous (adj) having very little variety; staying the same; boring

Working on an assembly line was a very monotonous job for Eddie who liked to be active and outside.

Synonyms: repetitive, dull Antonyms: varied, interesting

Other forms: The monotony (noun) of being a lifeguard all summer long started to wear on me in mid-August.

12. prominent (adj) well-known or noticeable

Dumbo is a prominent cartoon character, and his ears are his most prominent feature. Synonyms: sticking out, obvious, famous

13. quest (noun) a search or pursuit

The pirates were on a quest for gold treasure.

Synonyms: mission, expedition, hunt

Other forms: Quest can also be a verb meaning "to search for," as in: Jim quested after treasure, but never found any.

14. solar (adj) relating to the sun

My parents put solar panels on our roof to help our pool stay heated.

15. unique (adj) one of a kind

The insect that I captured was so unique that biologists from three different countries were contacting me about it.

Synonyms: distinctive

Antonyms: common, normal

1.1		٠.
U	n	11	5
$\circ$			$\sim$

		\Flocabulary
Name:	Date:	(i locabulai 9

5D Fix the Mistake

dense / deplete / eclipse / eerie / effect / esteem / excel / futile / hazardous / influence / monotonous / prominent / quest / solar / unique

Each of the sentences below has a mistake. The wrong vocabulary words have been used, so the sentences don't make sense. Rewrite each sentence using the correct vocabulary word from this unit.

1.	Ferris Bueller's teacher was very boring and his tone of voice was solar .
2.	By casting votes online and by phone, the public can esteem the winner of American I	ldol.
3.	Breathing in second-hand smoke is futile to your own health.
4.	Because she's everywhere on the radio, you can say Rihanna is a unique artist in the music industry.
5.	In 1804, Meriwether Lewis and William Clark led an effect to explore the Louisiana Territory.
6.	While many fail, Ice Cube has depleted as both a rapper and an actor.
7.	During the month of October, our teacher read monotonous Halloween stories to us.
8.	Kayla felt it was hazardous to memorize all of her friends' phone numbers since she so many friends.	had
9.	Jupiter is the largest planet in the prominent system.

Flocabulary

10.	After his fifth bowl of cereal, Zachary realized that he had influenced all of the milk in the fridge.
11.	My uncle's automobile is dense because it looks more like a spaceship than a car.
12.	After Matthew won first place in the state spelling bee contest for the third year in a row, we eclipsed him with a special school assembly.
13.	It will be a long time before my new baby sister will be able to eat eerie food since she doesn't have any teeth.
14.	The Mariners pitcher's no-hitter depleted the fact that Ichiro went 5 for 5 at the plate in the same game.
15.	Oregon becoming a U.S. state was one quest of pioneers moving west.

Name:______ Date:___

Unit 5

Name	Date:
5E I	Pick the Winner
dense /	deplete / eclipse / eerie / effect / esteem / excel / futile / hazardous / influence / monotonous / prominent / quest / solar / unique le the word that best fits into the sentence. Then write a sentence below that uses the word you didn't in a meaningful way.
1.	Not climbing to the top of Mt. Everest was an (effect OR eerie) of my fear of heights.
2.	Javier (eclipsed OR excelled) in the sport of cross country skiing when he won three blue ribbons this season.
3.	The chemical spill was (futile OR hazardous) for the workers to clean up.
4.	The (solar OR dense) panels on the roof of my house trap in heat and then supply heat to our family's entire home.
5.	Species are (esteeming or depleting) since every day rainforests are being cut down.

	n	1 +	-
$\cup$			-

Namo:	Dato:	\Flocabulary
Name:	Date

5F Draw the Relationship

dense / deplete / eclipse / eerie / effect / esteem / excel / futile / hazardous / influence / monotonous / prominent / quest / solar / unique

In each grouping of eight words below, draw straight lines between the synonyms (words that mean similar things) and squiggly lines between any antonyms (words that mean nearly opposite things). Every word should have at least one line connected to it. Some may have more.

4	normal	eerie	prominent	excel
U	effect	do extremely well	consequence	well-known
2	journey	dense	influence	quest
9	esteem	pressure or sway	not valued	closely packed in
3	lively	increase	sunny	deplete
•	solar	monotonous	useful	futile
	stand out	eclipse	prominent	hazardous
4	common	safe	hide from view	unique

1.1

Name:	Date:	\Flocabulary

5G Understanding What You Read

dense / deplete / eclipse / eerie / effect / esteem / excel / futile / hazardous / influence / monotonous / prominent / quest / solar / unique

Read the passage below. Then answer the questions.

I have been fascinated by eclipses all of my life. As a young girl, I remember feeling something magical the first time I saw the moon pass in front of the sun. My whole neighborhood stood in a deep shadow, and I knew from that day on, I would study eclipses. Now, I am a professor of astronomy at the University of Michigan. In fact, I'm a prominent astronomer in this country, mostly because I'm an expert on eclipses.

Eclipses are unique events that occur in the solar system and can be observed from planet Earth or other locations. On average, only four to seven eclipses can be seen from Earth each year. Some are what we call "total eclipses," but usually they are only "partial." A total eclipse is the most impressive to see.

An eclipse occurs when one object in space moves into the shadow of another. Planets and stars cast shadows just like people and trees do. A lunar eclipse occurs when the moon moves into the shadow cast by the Earth. The effect is usually a little eerie: A circle-shaped shadow passes over the moon until it's very hard to see. After about 90 minutes, however, the moon will be visible again.

Solar eclipses are even more breathtaking. During a solar eclipse, the moon passes between the Earth and the sun, blocking out the sun's rays. In many ancient cultures, solar eclipses were thought to be a sign that the end of the world was coming or that gods were angry. Today we understand them to be simple astronomical events, but they are still an amazing sight. In fact, I've gone on eclipse-chasing quests, traveling to China just to see solar eclipses. This is necessary because some eclipses are only visible in certain parts of the world.

One thing is very important, however: Looking directly at the sun, even during a solar eclipse, can be very hazardous. You might seriously damage your eyes. So enjoy eclipses, but make sure you view them safely.

1. According to the text,

- (A) lunar eclipses are the most amazing to watch
- (B) viewing a lunar eclipse can kill you
- (C) viewing a solar eclipse can kill you
- (D) solar eclipses are the most amazing to watch

2. Which best describes the author of the piece?

- (A) a girl who excels at studying eclipses
- (B) a guy who is an astronomy expert
- (C) a teacher who has loved eclipses all her life
- (D) a government scientist

3. According to the text, an eclipse happens when

- (A) a planet or other object moves into the shadow of something else
- (B) the sun blocks out the moon
- (C) the Earth blocks out the sun
- (D) the sun blocks out the Earth

1 1
11	n	11

		\Flocabulary
Name:	Date:

4. Why does the author enjoy studying eclipses?

- (A) They are a mystery she is trying to solve.
- (B) They indicate that the world is coming to an end.
- (C) As a girl, she was amazed by a solar eclipse.
- (D) As a professor, she must teach all subjects in astronomy.

5. Which of the statements is FALSE?

- (A) Usually less than ten eclipses can be seen from Earth each year.
- (B) A lunar eclipse is a little bit spooky to watch.
- (C) A lunar eclipse can be hazardous to your eyesight.
- (D) Some eclipses are only visible on one side of the world.

	D .	\Flocabular (
Name:	Date:	_ (I I o dan alar

5H Thinking Creatively

dense / deplete / eclipse / eerie / effect / esteem / excel / futile / hazardous / influence / monotonous / prominent / quest / solar / unique

Answer each question below. Don't be afraid to think creatively.

1.	Why do you think a pond on a golf course is called a water hazard ?
2.	Who is a more prominent figure in history: Abraham Lincoln or John F. Kennedy?
3.	Describe something that is monotonous in your life.
4.	Microsoft named one of their computer programs Excel . Why was this a good or bad choice?
5.	Describe something that makes you a unique individual.

Word Breakdown

It's very easy to mix up the words effect and affect. After all, they're pronounced the same way. The key difference is that "effect" is a noun, but "affect" is a verb. "Affect" means "to act upon or change," (much like the word "infl ence"). Effect" means "result." So my memory was affected when I was hit on the head. Or the effect of getting hit on the head was a loss of memory. The difference is tricky, but not if you remember this simple rhyme:

If it's a verb, it's "A," if it's a noun, it's "E," Now the word effect sounds so easy.

The word monotonous is interesting too. "Mono" means "one," like a "monorail" (a train track with one rail) or "monopoly" (one company that owns a lot). "Ton" is short for "tone," as in ring tones or the tone of your voice. The ending "ous" just means that it is an adjective like "continuous." So the word monotonous really means "one toned," having only one sound. Nowadays you can use the word to mean things that are generally repetitive or boring. As the rapper Big Daddy Kane once warned other emcees: "Your tough talk is monotonous."